

THE PERFECT BATH

BARBARA SALLICK

RIZZOLI
NEW YORK

OPPOSITE AND ABOVE: The near-monochrome palette of this room is activated by the directionality of the boards, the distressed finish of the accessories table, and the rhythm of the floor. Towels add texture, the tub's dark deck introduces a datum, and the picture collage focuses the eye.

