A TIME FOR DESIGN

Just a friendly reminder that you still have time to get down to savor the 43rd annual Kips Bay Decorator Show House, as the Manhattan design destination will remain open daily through June 11.

We've offered glimpses here in past weeks, which advanced and complemented our story in WAG's June issue (out now).

It's quite the showcase, we have to say, and there were a few photos we still wanted to share, so enjoy this little gallery.

Maybe it will spark your memory of the show house – or inspire you to make a visit.

For more, visit kipsbaydecoratorshowhouse.org.
